The United States government needs to become neutral toward all religious beliefs.

It should do so by not using any particular group's beliefs, icons, scriptures, or institutions.

PROHIBITION ENDS AT LAST!

New York got the breaks from Utah. . . The lid is off! . . . The 36th and most necessary State to ratify repeal of the Prohibition Amendment had dillyed and dallied yesterday while New York fumed and then "out of consideration for the rest of the nation" . . . New York in particular. . . the long-dry Mormons opened their hearts and cast their ballots for repeal hours ahead of the time expected. . . Then the fun began!

Utah can't have a drink until Jan. 1, anyway—because of state laws to be repealed—but they agreed to let us have ours.

And did New York like the idea?

What if this was the law?

Christians...

Christians...
And deists, agnostics, and atheists.

"I will never apologize for fearlessly defending the Judeo-Christian values on which this nation was founded."
Jerry Falwell

"The United States is in no sense founded upon the Christian religion."
George Washington

Which of these two people is a liar?

We all deserve to have a government that won't impose any religion on us.

We are not powerless to bring about that change in our system.

Not only do we have the capability, but also the civic duty to pursue it.

THANK YOU
